County Commissioners to host town hall meeting by phone

The Baker County Commissioners will host a town hall meeting to discuss the local response to the COVID-19 event. The meeting will be held by phone on Thursday, April 16, from 6:00-7:30 PM. Representatives from the County Commissioners, public health, business operations and recovery, public information and law enforcement will be available to answer questions. Due to physical distancing requirements, the meeting will be held by phone, and through the online conferencing service WebEx.

Questions can be submitted in advance of the meeting by emailing them to pio@bakercounty.org, and will be answered as time allows.
